Santa Rita Graduation FAQ

Do we need tickets or wristbands to attend the graduation?

No. We will not be issuing tickets or wristbands for entry to graduation.

Is there a limit on how many guests can attend per graduate?

No. Our stadium grandstand seating affords us the opportunity to not require limited guest numbers.

Will there be wheelchair accessible seating available?

Yes. We will have identified wheelchair accessible seating available at the base level of our stadium grandstand.

What time do gates open for seating?

6:15pm

Can we bring in our own refreshments?

No. For safety purposes, we only allow clear, plastic containers for water. We will have water for purchase at the event for your convenience.

Do you have a "clear bag only" policy?

Yes. For safety purposes, we require bags to be clear (see-through) for entry. Anyone without a clear bag will be subject to a standard search of their bag.

Can we bring balloons, etc?

Yes. Please note you may be asked to adjust/move your seating if your items block the view of other guests.

Will the Class of 2025 graduation be livestreamed?

Yes. You can view it on our official Santa Rita High School Facebook page.

Please help us to make this a SAFE and ENJOYABLE night for everyone! All TUSD properties are to be free of tobacco, drugs, and weapons. Violations will result in being removed from the property.
